CONGRATULATIONS

CLASS OF 1992

CAL STATE FULLERTON
WELCOMES BACK

KEVIN AND CINDY COSTNER

MAY
4
1992

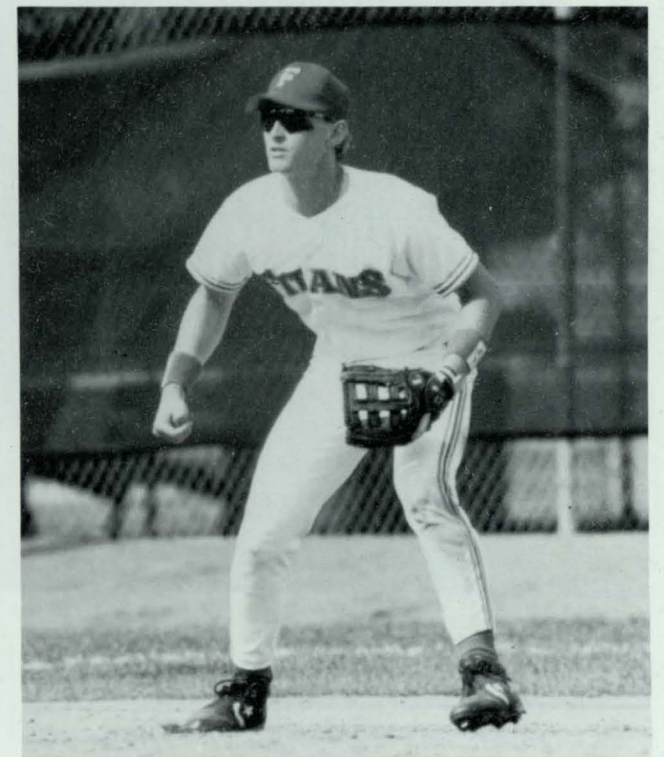

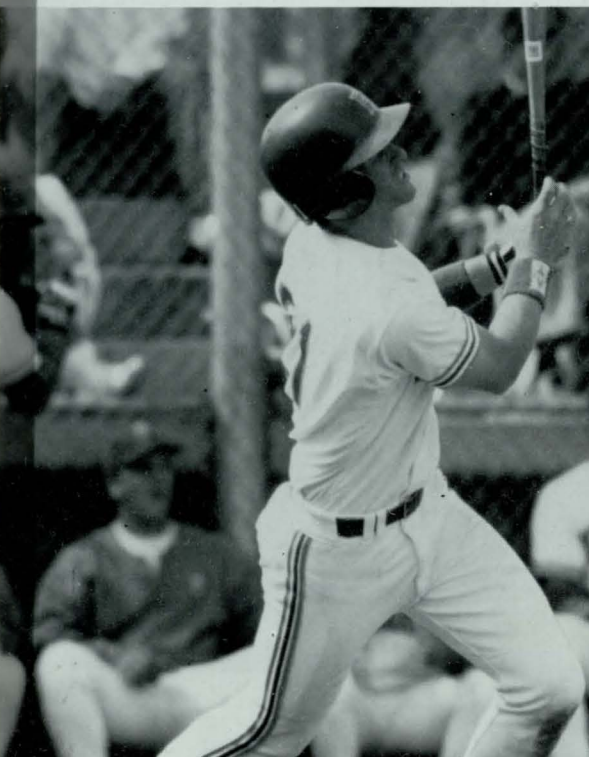

FIRST ROUND DRAFT PICK

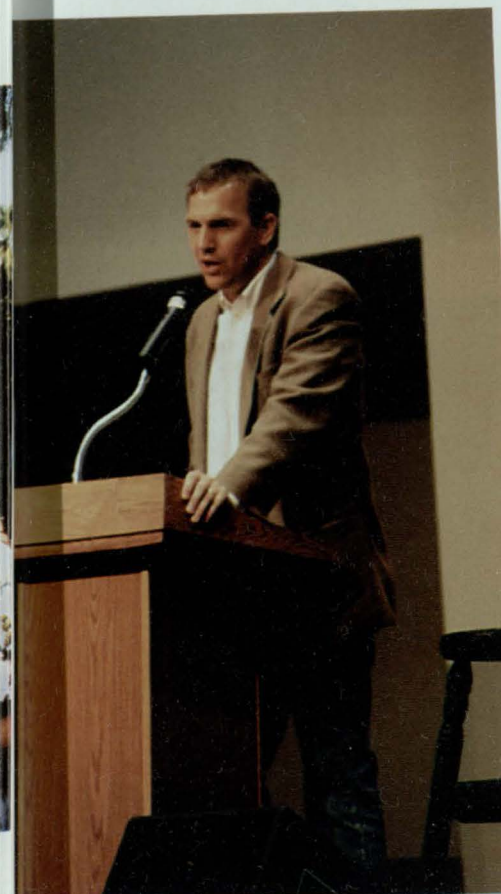

PHIL NEVIN

Cal State Fullerton third baseman, Phil Nevin gave a very impressive performance throughout the season. He helped lead his team to the 1992 College World Series, where the team won an impressive 5 games, before being defeated, in the sixth game by the Pepperdine Waves. Nevin earned the Most Outstanding Player Honor at the tournament and the Most Valuable Player Honor in the Conference. Nevin became the first round draft pick to the Houston Astros and the 1992 College Baseball Player of the Year earned a spot on the 1992 U.S. Summer Olympics Baseball team bound for Barcelona, Spain.

On May 4, Kevin Costner returned to his alma mater to be honored by the CSUF Alumni Association as the 1992 Distinguished Alumnus. Accompanied by his wife Cindy ('81 Biological Science), Kevin spent the day at a student open forum, a private reception and the dedication of the new baseball field at the Titan Sports Complex. At the open forum in the new Titan Pavilion, Costner spent 90 minutes speaking to over 1800 students and fielding their questions. Later, at a private reception hosted by the Alumni Association and President Gordon, Kevin was presented with the Distinguished Alumnus Award by Alumni Association president Mike Weiss. The day's events concluded with Kevin dedicating the new baseball field by throwing out the first ball. Costner was then presented with a Titan baseball jersey by Coach Augie Garrido and made the "10th man" on the team. All in all, it was a day Cal State Fullerton will never forget.

REVIEW

Thousands of Iraqis were killed by the U.S. and its allies after Saddam Hussein invaded Kuwait. His army retreated from Kuwait, leaving the country in shambles, but the leader remained in power.

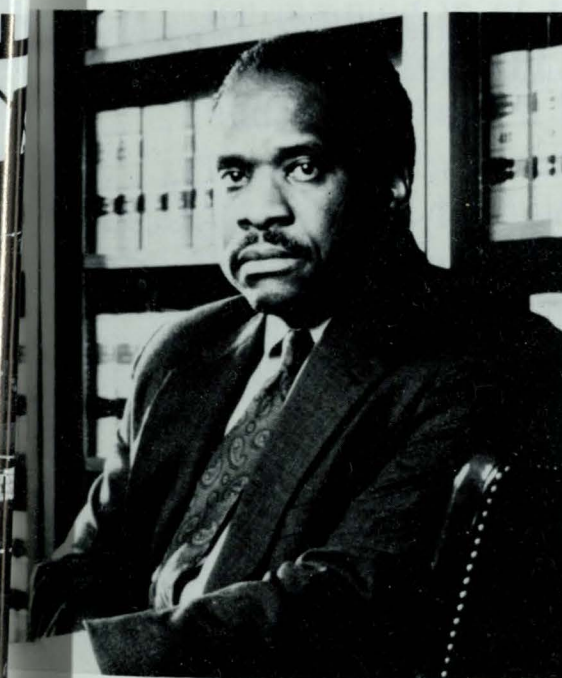

The Iraqi invasion caused the destruction of millions of dollars in property. Here the effects of war were severely evident.

The retirement of Justice Thurgood Marshall of the Supreme Court caused President Bush to nominate another person to the high court.

Anita Hill, a professor and former co-worker of Thomas', alleged to have been sexually assaulted by the Supreme Court nominee. Hearings were held and her testimony failed to dismiss Mr. Thomas.

43 year old, Clarence Thomas was confirmed by the U.S. Senate to replace Marshall on the Supreme Court. Thomas remained well supported throughout the ordeal and won his seat in a 52-48 vote.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

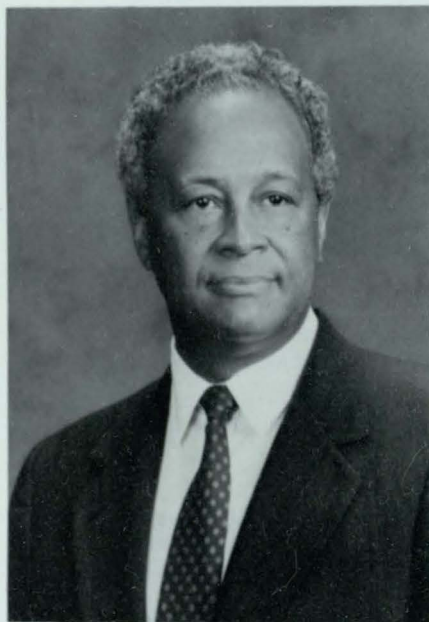

To the Class of 1992:

It is my pleasure to extend congratulations to you for having successfully completed your degree objectives this year at California State University, Fullerton. You should be proud of your hard work, dedication and accomplishments that have brought you to this point in your life journey.

I am certain that just as you have left your mark on Cal State Fullerton you will do so in all your future endeavors. You have had the opportunity to attend a university with a quality faculty that is committed to teaching a diverse student body.

As you join nearly 90,000 alumni of Cal State Fullerton, I hope that the knowledge and skills you gained here will enrich your life and bring further rewards to you and to society. I encourage you to remain in close contact with us and to assume a leadership role in the community and the CSUF Alumni Association.

I look forward to hearing about your future successes and welcoming you as an active alumni participant in the life of Cal State Fullerton.

Sincerely,

Milton A. Gordon

EDITOR'S MESSAGE

I would first like to thank my wonderful advisors, Patty Boggs and Mary Jacobson. Without their help, patience, and understanding, I would never have been able to complete this book. Thanks to all those in Alumni Relations who helped, especially Susanne Bonner. Thanks for all the laughs. Thanks to Josten's Representative Buzz Ponce for his never-ending assistance. Thanks to Gary Mercado and staff at the Portrait Gallery. Thanks to those in Public Affairs, especially Paula Selleck. Without Paula's help we would have never been able to use those awesome Kevin Costner pictures. Thanks to my yearbook staff, David Lee and Hector Villegas, remember guys, ΣNETT! Thanks to Director of Sports Information Mel Franks and his staff for all those great athletics pictures. Thanks to Kristen Farina, for jumping in at the last minute and helping complete the book. You will be an awesome Editor next year, and remember I'll be there to help you. One final thanks to my Mom, for if she had not helped me get into school, I would never have accomplished this book. Love You. To those I neglected to mention, thanks for your assistance. Congratulations to the Class of 1992. I hope you enjoy this book.

Steven A. Hernandez
Editor-in-Chief

Congratulations to all 1992 Cal State Fullerton graduates. Your hard work and patience have earned you your degrees and you now join nearly 90,000 CSUF alumni worldwide who represent our university's commitment to excellence. Cal State Fullerton's reputation has grown tremendously since its first graduating class in 1960. Alumni have played a key role in this achievement. In the coming years, your success in your chosen fields of interest will further enhance the university's reputation.

Now, as an alumnus, you have earned the opportunity to join the growing ranks of the CSUF Alumni Association. Continued involvement with Cal State Fullerton can be a rewarding experience, as many of our members can attest. By maintaining close ties with the university and with fellow graduates, you can make a positive contribution to assist future students and the university. Now, more than ever before, CSUF needs the support of its alumni. We hope that we can count on your help in the coming years.

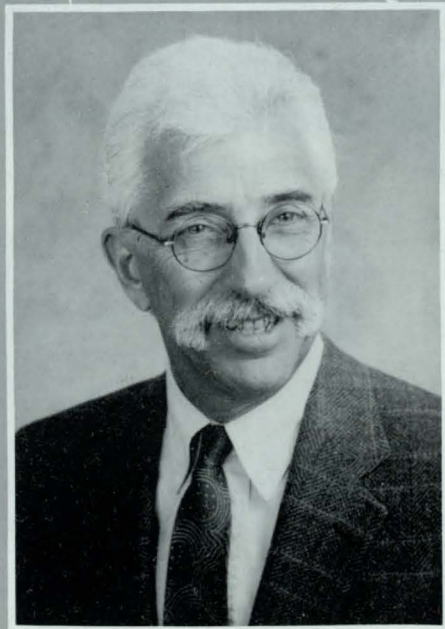

Again, congratulations on your achievement. It is my hope that your university experience will assist you in all your future endeavors.

Sincerely,

Michael Weiss
